As part of Acronotics' commitment to a modern work and life balance, employees are entitled up to 12 days of earned (vacation) leave each calendar year.

We have different categories of leave: Declared holidays, Sick leave, Earned leave, Compensatory Offs, Paternity leave and Maternity leave.

Declared Holidays:

These are published in January every year.

Employees based out of client locations, follow the client's leave calendar.

If not working as per Acronotics leaves calendar at client's location, one can apply for comp off upon approval by your Portfolio Manager and Chief Delivery Head.

Earned Leaves (vacation):

- Employees are entitled for 12 Earned leaves in a calendar year.
- Earned leaves are accrued at the rate 1 day per month.
- Unused vacation may be carried over to the next calendar year.
- A maximum of 15 days can be accrued. Days exceeding 15 days will lapse.
- Leaves cannot be used to offset notice period requirements.
- Unused vacation days up to 15 days max will be encashed at basic pay at separation after KT process.
- Leaves are not accrued in notice period.

Sick Leaves:

- Employees are entitled to 7 days of sick leave per calendar year.
- Sick leave cannot be accrued, carried forward or encashed.
- Sick leaves are given only based on approval by the reporting manager and chief delivery head.
- A maximum of 2 days can be availed at once. Anything more than 2 days will need a medical certificate to be submitted.

Maternity Leave:

- Maternity leave at Acronotics Private Ltd. shall be administered as per the prevailing Law/Act
- Maternity leave can be used for a maximum of two (2) occasions during an employee's tenure with the Company.
- Maximum of 26 weeks can be availed. Calculation includes weekends, public holidays and weekends.
- Medical Termination of Pregnancy: 6 weeks of leave with maximum of 2 instances are allowed during the tenure with the organization.
- Earned Leave and Sick Leave cannot be combined along with Maternity leaves.
- Cannot be encashed or used in installments.

Paternity Leave:

- Five days of paternity leave during the childbirth for new fathers, with a maximum of 2 instances allowed during the tenure with the organization.

Compensatory Leaves:

- Employees based out of client locations, follow the client's leave calendar.
- Employees may be required to work on public holidays and / or during weekly off days.
- If such work is officially mandated in writing by the Portfolio Manager, then the employee may be compensated with compensatory leave for those days with the approval of the Chief Delivery Head.
- Unused compensatory leave will lapse 60 days from the day earned.
- Compensatory leave cannot be accumulated, carried forward nor encashed.

Leaves During Probation:

- We do not encourage leaves during the probation period. Leave taken during probation period will be considered as a leave without pay.
- During probation period you will accrue earned leaves at 1 day per month however, you can

- avail them only post successful completion of probation.
- Employees joining between 1st and 15th of the month will accrue 1 day in the earned leave balance for that month.
- Employees joining between 15th and 30th /31st of the month will accrue 0.5 days in the earned leave balance for that month.

Leave without pay:

- Considered only under exceptional circumstances and requires senior management approval.
- Can be considered only when the employee's leave balance is zero.
- No components of the employee's salary and/or benefits are paid or accrued during this period.

Extension of leave:

- No eligibility for an extension if employee has no leave balance.
- No salary or benefits are paid out during the duration of the leave.

PROCEDURE TO APPLY FOR LEAVES

Request to be sent to Managers 4 months in advance through the company portal or email. Approval from Manager to be forwarded to HR for relevant action.

In case of Leave extensions/Maternity Leaves/Leave without pay, Chief Delivery Head's approval is mandatory along with relevant supporting proofs.
